By ADOLPH DONADEO, CCM
Rolling Hills Country Club
McMurray, Pennsylvania

Thirty-two persons from six CMAA chapters attended a regional meeting in September at Pittsburgh.

Most activities were conducted at Churchill Valley Country Club, where Anthony Donadeo was host, but at the start of the two-day meeting some managers accepted the invitation of CMAA Director Harry Gray to play golf at Oakmont Country Club, site of the 1973 U.S. Open. The brave competitors, led onto the course by CMAA Vice-President Gerald Marlatt, learned that what they had heard and read about Oakmont was true.

After a superb dinner at Churchill Valley, Mr. Marlatt, Northmoor Country Club, Highland Park, Illinois, showed slides of Hawaii, site of the 1973 CMAA Conference in February.

Education was the main business the next day, as arranged by Mr. Gray, regional meeting chairman. The speakers: Dr. Robert Moore, CMAA
